

Curry of Farrell Fritz receives SNAP's Fred Meyer's Community Partners Award

July 14, 2014 - Front Section

Farrell Fritz congratulates partner, Peter Curry, who received SNAP's Fred Meyer's Community Partners Award at a luncheon on Friday, June 27, 2014 at Antun's in Queens Village.

Curry, a Cold Spring Harbor, NY resident, is a real estate attorney concentrating in economic development. He assists real estate developers in a variety of commercial projects throughout the region, including industrial, multi-family, research and development, and assisted living facilities. Mr. Curry earned his J.D. degree from Fordham University School of Law; his M.A. degree from the University of Virginia; and his B.A. degree from Fordham University.

In 2009, Mr. Curry received Lawyers Alliance for New York's Cornerstone Award for his efforts assisting SNAP in acquiring new space after they were made to vacate a building on the Creedmoor Psychiatric facility campus. He provided the agency with direct services and linkages to community resources. This project took seven years to complete, and SNAP is now undertaking the renovations necessary to operate the largest senior services program in Queens County.
