

Pliskin hires Bimba as an assistant property manager

July 14, 2014 - Long Island

Pliskin Realty & Development has appointed Charles Bimba as assistant property manager. He will oversee a range of property management functions from rent billing and collections, account management, property budgets and supervision of capital improvements, to supervision of contractors, property maintenance, insurance oversight, regulatory compliance and property marketing. Bimba was brought on to help manage over 60 New York metropolitan area properties under Pliskin's management in Nassau, Suffolk, Brooklyn and Queens.

Directly prior to joining Pliskin, Bimba served as a foreman for Land-Tech Enterprises (Warrington, PA), where he managed a four to five-man crew supervising multiple projects ranging from pipe laying and excavation to construction, deconstruction and home remodeling projects in the Philadelphia area.

Bimba holds a bachelor of arts in Business Management from Kutztown University.

Pliskin Realty & Development is one of the leading real estate brokerage, property management and investment firms in the New York-Metropolitan region specializing in retail real estate.
