

Levy of GLR honored by Westchester County Board of Realtors, Inc.

April 04, 2008 - Upstate New York

Grand Lux Realty's (GLR) principal broker, Michael Levy, has received (for the second year running) the Excellence In Sales Award. Levy received a Diamond Sales Award (their highest designation) from the Westchester County Board of Realtors, Inc. for outstanding real estate sales in 2007. The awards program is conducted annually by the board of realtors to recognize high levels of individual achievement in the number and dollar volume of real estate transactions as compiled from the records of board's subsidiary, the Westchester-Putnam Multiple Listing Service, Inc. Levy has been in the real estate business for over 20 years.
