

LIREG members gather July 27 for beach networking event at Crescent Beach Club

August 11, 2014 - Long Island

It was fun in the sun for more than a hundred members of the Long Island Real Estate Group (LIREG) who gathered on July 27 for one of the organization's first "LIREG at the Beach" networking events. Held at the Crescent Beach Club on Long Island's North Shore, the outdoor gathering featured a lobster bake, open bar with frozen tropical drinks, a steel band, beach volleyball, kayaks and more.

With more than 300 members, LIREG is one of Long Island's fastest growing real estate organization, offering professionals in the industry and allied trades an opportunity to network and join together in philanthropic efforts.
