What do you do now and what are you planning for the future? DeSanto Realty Group is a leading sponsor in the tenant-in-common industry. Based in suburban Philadelphia, our firm provides quality tax-advantaged investments to investors seeking to increase their cash flow and diversify a portfolio. We offer real estate investors access to institutional quality real estate investments, while minimizing their risk through due diligence, detailed market research and comprehensive property management. In the future, we hope to further expand our offerings and add a REIT or equity fund to our tenant in common offerings.

Hobbies: Sporting events, spending time with my children

Favorite book: "The Five People You Meet in Heaven" by Mitch Albom

Person you admire most (outside of family): Jim Koch, a smart businessman

Keys to success: Surround yourself with hardworking, positive people and learn all you can about your competition.

If you had to choose another vocation what would it be? Teacher
