

Brooklyn Psychiatric Centers honor R.E. executives

October 01, 2007 - New York City

Brooklyn Psychiatric Centers will honor Timothy King and Brian Leary, of Massey Knakal, and Elan Padeh and David Behin, of The Developers Group, with The Judge Robert Wilkin Commitment to Community Award at its 101st Anniversary Casino Night Gala on Thursday, October 4, 2007.

The event will take place at Bridgewater, 11 Fulton St., South St. Seaport, Lower Manhattan. The dinner and awards program are scheduled from 5:30 to 7 p.m., and the casino night, dining, and dancing from 7 to 10 p.m.

"We are delighted to be presenting the Judge Robert J. Wilkin Award, named after our agency's visionary founder, to four individuals in the real estate community who also are visionaries and have contributed so much to Brooklyn's renaissance," said Dr. Pamela Straker, president and CEO of Brooklyn Psychiatric Centers.

Each year, thousands of children, adults, seniors and their families receive the help they need during more than 60,000 visits to Brooklyn Psychiatric Center's five community-based clinics in Williamsburg-Greenpoint, Bushwick, Canarsie, Flatbush-Sheepshead Bay, and downtown, on-site programs in the public schools, an outpatient drug and alcohol treatment program, a prevention program serving at-risk children and their families, and senior programs.
