

Mossien Architects receives Outstanding Project Award from Construction Specifications Institute

April 18, 2008 - Upstate New York

Mossien Associates Architects, P.C. is the recipient of the 2008 Outstanding Project Award issued by the Rochester Chapter of the Construction Specifications Institute (CSI). After completing a review process, Mossien has been awarded for its impeccable architecture and planning of the NYS United Teachers Regional Office Building renovation in Jamestown.

The award identifies Mossien as having exceptional teamwork between the owner, designer and constructor, realized through the CSI's principal of how clear, well prepared construction documents can positively influence the process, quality and successful outcome of a project. "All of us at Mossien Associates Architects are honored to be recognized by the national association dedicated to creating standards and formats to improve construction documents and project delivery," said Daniel Mossien, RA, NCARB, founder and president of Mossien.
