November 24, 2014 - Front Section

Platinum Drive Realty revealed the exclusive listing of a newly built, two-story family home at 17 Harvest Dr.

The 9,000 s/f luxury residential property sits on 3/4 of an acre of land in a cozy residential neighborhood. The home features three patios including a covered porch with outdoor fireplace, three car garage, and spacious backyard with room for a pool. There is also a library and second butler's pantry on the first floor. The second floor has five bedrooms en suite and a huge playroom with back staircase and laundry. The lower level boasts wine storage, a maids' room and full bath, and a vast open space perfect for a game room, gym or additional living space. The home is being built by one of Scarsdale's premier homebuilders, widely lauded for their fine craftsmanship, attention to detail and ability to work with clients to create their dream home.

Located in Scarsdale, right off of the Hutchinson River Parkway, 17 Harvest Dr. is ideally located near community recreational facilities, houses of worship and the Scarsdale school district.
