Dominican Republic New York-based law firm Duval & Stachenfeld LLP represented Melody Capital Partners in a transaction for a $30 million mezzanine loan to a subsidiary of British Virgin Islands-based Dolphin Capital Investors, a leading global investor and developer of large-scale residential resorts in emerging markets. The loan will be used to complete the development of an Aman-branded resort at Playa Grande Club & Reserve, a 2,000-acre resort in the Dominican Republic, best known for its beaches, nature reserve and 60-ft. cliffs overlooking the golf course designed by the legendary Robert Trent Jones Sr.

Eric Tanjeloff, head of real estate investments of Melody Capital Partners, said, "We are very excited to have partnered with Dolphin on this world-class project. This investment underscores our strategy to assist strong sponsors in unlocking significant value in high-quality real estate assets."

Bruce Stachenfeld, the managing partner of Duval & Stachenfeld, stated that: "This transaction is exactly the reason we formed a Caribbean and Central America Practice Group! There is particular expertise needed in handling a transaction of this nature in the Dominican Republic and I was gratified that our team was able to handle this for our client."

The Duval & Stachenfeld team was spearheaded by partners Michael Kupin and Alan Cohen, along with of counsel Maureen Hannon, with assistance from partner Sam Lee, and associate Sara Kolb.
