

RKF completes two leases at 1430 Third Ave.

April 25, 2008 - Shopping Centers

Robert K. Futterman & Associates, LLC (RKF) has completed its leasing assignment at 1430 Third Ave. by leasing 1,500 s/f to LensCrafters and 2,800 s/f to the Arthritis Foundation Thrift Shop. Both retailers are relocating from their current locations.

RKF senior vice president Ariel Schuster and senior director Jonathan Krieger represented building ownership, Noam Management. LensCrafters was represented by Frank Dimucci of Dimucci Partners and the Arthritis Foundation Thrift Shop was represented by Stuart Ellman of Judson Realty.

1430 Third Ave. is situated on a prominent corner on the Upper East Side. The neighborhood is home to popular local restaurants and specialty boutiques, as well as national retail chains including Boom Fitness, Eli's Manhattan, Luke's, Tiramisu, The Food Emporium, National Jean Company, Crumbs Bake Shop and Citibank.

One of the country's leading independent real estate firm specializing in retail leasing and investment sales, RKF serves a broad spectrum of domestic and global clients in services ranging from national tenant and owner representation to advisory, consulting and disposition. With over $9 billion in aggregate real estate transactions to its credit, RKF has been responsible for identifying scores of real estate opportunities throughout the United States for leading American and international chains, retailers, developers and institutional clients. RKF is headquartered in New York with offices in Las Vegas, Los Angeles, and San Francisco.
