

Wierzbicki of Pliskin Realty & Development brokers 10-year lease

August 24, 2015 - Front Section

According to Pliskin Realty & Development, a prominent New York-Metropolitan area retail real estate brokerage, property management and investment firm, sales associate Christopher Wierzbicki brokered a 10-year lease with options for Expedia CruiseShip Centers Franchise's new location in the Greenridge Plaza at the corner of Richmond Ave. and Arthur Kill Rd. Wierzbicki, exclusively represented Expedia, and made the deal directly with the property landlord, Kimco Realty.

Expedia CruiseShipCenters Franchise is a global leader in the marketing and sales of cruise vacations. The organization has been growing consistently for over 25 years and now has a network of over 180 independently-owned franchise locations and more than 4,000 Vacation Consultants across North America.

This is the second transaction Wierzbicki has brokered on behalf of Expedia this year. Greenridge Plaza is 100,997 square foot shopping center and has a tenant lineup which includes L.A. Fitness, McDonald's and Dollar Tree among others.

At Pliskin, Wierzbicki concentrates on property sales and leasing assignments, representing property owners, tenants, and investors. He brings to the role diverse real estate and related financial experience and extensive sales, marketing and strategic planning skills.
