

Monroe Roadways underway with site construction of Five Star Bank; Working with Mulvey Construction on 3,780 s/f building

September 08, 2015 - Upstate New York

Monroe Roadways, one of Rochester's leading site construction experts, is currently underway with site construction services for Five Star Bank located at the new CityGate development off Westfall Rd. Monroe Roadways is providing a full scope of site services for the 3,780 s/f building. Monroe is working with Mulvey Construction on the project. Work is currently underway, with completion slated for October.

"Monroe Roadways is proud to establish a relationship with Five Star Bank as it continues its impressive growth in Upstate New York with the construction of their first Rochester branch," said Monroe Roadways president, Jeff Taylor. "As a leader in site construction, Monroe is committed to delivering a job done right and built to last, and this project will be no different."

Located on the Erie Canal in the heart of the city's university and hospital district, CityGate is a walkable, refreshing mixed-use destination. Five Star joins Costco Wholesale as well as several other tenants, from restaurants to retail shops.

Headquartered in Fairport, Monroe Roadways has been performing site construction services for clients across Western N.Y. for over 50 years.
