

Bryan Gordon Chairman & Managing Director

May 19, 2008 - Financial Digest

Name: Bryan Gordon

Title: Chairman and Managing Director

Company: Madison Capital Company, LLC

Location: New York, N.Y.

Birthplace: Chicago, Ill.

Family: Daughter, Ariel, and mother, Marcie

College: Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania for undergraduate; Columbia University for MBA

First job outside of finance: Residential and commercial services: painting and landscaping company co-founded at age 16.

First job in finance or allied field: E.F. Hutton & Co., Inc.

What do you do now and what are you planning for the future? Founded in 1996, Madison Capital Management is an alternative "alternative" investment management firm specializing in niche distressed and special situation assets, with an emphasis on commercial real estate.

Favorite book: "Shibumi" by Trevanian

Favorite movie: "The Godfather"

Person you admire most (outside of family): Ted Turner, for his successful entrepreneurial career, view of real estate as the ultimate long-term investable asset class, and commitment to giving back through philanthropy.

Keys to success: Vision, risk management, drive to succeed, passion, keen knowledge of history, ethics

If you had to choose another vocation what would it be? Architect