East Greenbush, NY According to Holliday Fenoglio Fowler, L.P. (HFF) it has closed the $15.1 million sale of Columbia Plaza, a 137,647 s/f, grocery-anchored retail center.

HFF marketed the property on behalf of the seller, a partnership between Capstone Realty Group and WP Realty. Nigro Cos., based in Albany, purchased the asset free and clear of existing debt.

Columbia Plaza - East Greenbush, NY

Anchored by Price Chopper, Columbia Plaza is 89.3% leased and home to Peebles, Dollar Tree, Pet Stop, Vineyard Wine & Spirit, Nishiki Sushi, Hair Studio One, Liberty Tax Service, Quality Hearing, NBT Bank and Computer Answers. The three-building center was completed in 1988. Situated on 14.6 acres at 501 Columbia Turnpike, Columbia Plaza is 3.5 miles southeast of Albany, one of the fastest growing areas in the state. The center’s Columbia Turnpike location places it in one of the main retail corridors, a community located along the Hudson River. Columbia Turnpike is accessible from Interstates 8, 787 and 90 in addition to state highways 151, 43 and 9J.

The HFF investment sales team that represented the seller was led by senior managing director Jose Cruz, managing director Kevin O’Hearn, directors Michael Oliver and Stephen Simonelli with assistance from senior managing director Andrew Scandalios.

“There was a great response to this offering given it’s a well leased grocery anchored retail center in the northeast,” Cruz said. “These assets are in high demand these days.”

“The sale of this property completes our value-add strategy of turning around properties in great locations in need of capital,” said Rob Friedberg, managing partner of Capstone Realty Group.
