New York, NY Twenty-four engineering students attending colleges and universities in NYS will receive $67,500 collectively in scholarships from member firms of the American Council of Engineering Companies of New York (ACEC NY). Individual awards range from $2,500 to $5,000 and are given based on the students' cumulative grade-point average, college activities, work experience and essays on consulting engineering.

Since the program's launch in 2002, ACEC NY has awarded 261 scholarships totaling $708,000. The scholarship program was implemented to support up-and-coming engineers, thereby guaranteeing a strong future for the profession in NYS.

Students attending N.Y. metropolitan-area colleges will be honored at ACEC NY's membership luncheon on May 23rd at the Union League Club. Students attending upstate colleges will be recognized at the council's winter conference in Albany on January 28th, 2018.

Two students were honored with ACEC NY Merit Scholarships, each in the amount of $5,000, at the ACEC NY Engineering Excellence Awards Gala at the Hilton Midtown N.Y. on April 1st. Joanna Zou was given an Award of Merit Scholarship in recognition of the Army Corps of Engineers, N.Y. division, and Aaron Appelle was given an Award of Merit Scholarship in recognition of the New York Building Congress. Awards of Merit are given by ACEC NY to recognize agencies and authorities for outstanding achievements in service to N.Y. communities. In honor of the 50th Anniversary of the Engineering Excellence Awards and past Award of Merit winners, a special $5,000 scholarship, underwritten by WSP USA was given to Amanda Harrold.
