

NAI Global names Simon as executive managing director of N.Y.C. office

June 30, 2008 - Front Section

NAI Global has promoted Andrew Simon to executive managing director of the city's NAI Global office.

"Andy is an accomplished broker with a track record of success that spans three decades in the N.Y.C. commercial real estate market," said Jeffrey Finn, president & CEO of NAI Global.

Simon will expand upon his current responsibilities and client portfolio to include new business development, recruiting and helping to grow the NAI Global brand in the city.

Simon joined NAI Global in February 2007. He holds a bachelor's degree from Tufts University and is a member of the Real Estate Board New York (REBNY).
