

Triumph Construction receives Rising Star award

July 18, 2017 - Design / Build

Joining Triumph Construction founder and president Carlo Cuzzi (center) at the New York Construction Awards are (from left) are: Triumph Construction private division operations manager Mark Ficken; Triumph Construction controller Jill Paz; Triumph Construction project accountant Krystina Cuzzi; Triumph Construction general counsel Bonnie Porzio; Triumph Construction office manager Shirley Jacobs; and Triumph Construction supervisor Carmine Ferraro.

Hunts Point, NY Triumph Construction Corp. has received the Rising Star Award at the 2017 New York Construction Awards, presented by Anchin, Block & Anchin LLP and the New York Building Congress.

“We are honored to be recognized by our peers in the construction industry,” said Triumph Construction founder and president Carlo Cuzzi. “Every day, all year, we prove to the NYC and private contractors that no one works harder than Triumph Construction or is more committed to delivering a quality job. On behalf of the entire Triumph team, we thank the New York Construction Awards for naming us a Rising Star and for including Triumph Construction in such prestigious company.”

The Rising Star Award recognizes stars in Construction, Design and Development based on accelerated growth, highlighting the industries’ fastest growing companies. This year’s ceremony was held at Bloomberg headquarters, 120 Park Ave. in Manhattan, and featured keynote speaker Carlo Scissura, Esq., president & CEO of the New York Building Congress.

Triumph Construction Corp. is active in every borough of New York City and is a sought-after partner in everything from gas and electric service work to major capital improvement projects and large-scale private sector construction jobs. Founded in 1999 by Carlo Cuzzi, Triumph Construction employs approximately 300 people and takes pride in supporting local causes and organizations.

New York Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540