Pittsford, NY Harris Beach has expanded its commercial real estate practice with the addition of partners Timothy Fitzgerald and Jordan Alaimo, associate Sean McCabe, and paralegal Allyn Van Dusen. They bring experience managing complex and high-value real estate and financing transactions for clients across the state and nationally from inception through the full cycle of development.

Fitzgerald brings multimillion dollar projects and financings to fruition for clients including private owners and family-owned portfolios, public companies, health systems, Wall Street players, and institutional lenders.

Alaimo represents regional and national developers in the negotiation of complex purchase and sale agreements, membership purchase agreements, financing documents and development agreements. His practice spans the full spectrum of commercial real estate.

McCabe uses his background as a CPA and management consultant to advise clients through commercial real estate transactions and matters, including entity formation, mergers, acquisitions, exit strategies and taxation.

Van Dusen has over 32 years of experience closing commercial real estate acquisitions, corporate dispositions of real estate, and real estate mortgage loans.

“Our Commercial Real Estate practice is one of the largest in the state. Tim, Jordan, Sean and Allyn provide additional resources that will enhance the real estate and financing capabilities we currently provide to our clients across New York and beyond,” said Chris Jagel, CEO of Harris Beach.

“We are so pleased to welcome Tim, Jordan, Sean and Allyn to the Commercial Real Estate Practice Group. Their reputation for navigating complex deals is a great asset to our team in the development, leasing and financing of office parks, multi-family housing projects, shopping and retail centers, hotels, hospitals, and industrial projects. The experience they bring complements our ability to solve the challenging development issues that our clients encounter,” said Chip Russell, leader of Harris Beach’s Commercial Real Estate Practice Group.

In addition to providing commercial real estate, finance, zoning and land use services, Fitzgerald, Alaimo, McCabe and Van Dusen will serve on the firm’s Real Estate Developers and Financial Institutions Industry Teams.
