

LIBOR launches new commercial network website

January 09, 2018 - Long Island

West Babylon, NY The Long Island Board of Realtors Inc. (LIBOR) has launched its new commercial network website - www.CNLIBOR.org.

CNLIBOR members are encouraged to access the site and check out the new and improved features and fresher content.

Some of which includes:

- Under the new “Find a Commercial Agent” feature, users will be able to search for agents by name and/or location. This search feature holds a complete roster of all of our members. It’s additional exposure available only for our members and spotlights your commercial specialty.
- Responsive mobile-friendly design.
- Also available exclusively to CNLIBOR members, is the ability to post, share and print listings. Listings entered by CN members will appear on the consumer public facing website, www.nycommercialnetwork.org, the most exciting feature of this redesign, which was created for greater geographical appeal.
