Manhattan, NY Development partners Witkoff, Fisher Brothers and New Valley, in conjunction with Douglas Elliman Development Marketing, officially unveiled the model apartments within their new residential tower 111 Murray St.

Designed by architect David Mann of MR Architecture + Décor, Mann handled the residential interiors for all 157 residences, including the $40 million penthouse.

Hundreds of guests attended the event and enjoyed cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, and the chance to meet Mann and the entire development team. The two model residences showcased during the event featured a four-bedroom, 2,685 s/f residence on the 28th floor, and a two-bedroom model residence, on the same floor at 1,581 s/f. All residences offer high ceilings, oversized windows, custom fixtures and views.
