What was your most notable project, deal, transaction or professional achievement in 2018?

Represented the owner of the property at 20 Times Square, New York, New York in connection with its $1.53 billion sale of the property. The transaction not only involved the sale of the property but also included a complex structured financing component with a portion of the financing being held by the owner. In addition, a development services agreement was negotiated as the owner retained the right to complete the development of the property.
