

Commercial Real Estate Guide 2019 - Technology: GeoData Plus

January 22, 2019 - Spotlights

GeoData Plus is a real estate data provider for all 50 states, used by thousands of real estate practitioners including appraisers, brokers, lenders, and investors. It is best known as a provider of real estate comparables and its nationwide foreclosure database. GeoData Plus is used for research, valuation, and prospecting. GeoData Plus was founded in the year 2000 as a desktop application for seven counties in New York State. Over the years, it has grown into a nationwide web application accessible from any internet enabled device. For more information on how GeoData Plus can help grow your real estate business, visit GeoDataPlus.com, or call 516-663-0790.
