

REBNY welcomes new members of its board and committees

February 05, 2019 - Front Section

New York, NY According to The Real Estate Board of New York, (REBNY) select members have joined its governing bodies. These members join REBNY leadership in charting the trade association's activities and policies in close and continuous consultation with its committees. They also consult on REBNY's positions and actions on issues concerning the industry.

"These leaders—who devote their time, energy, and expertise to our organization and New York—are doing a service for all of us who work in New York City real estate," said Bill Rudin, REBNY chairman. "Their professional achievements and dedication to the city's civic and philanthropic life have greatly benefitted our community."

"We look forward to working closely with these members who have joined the highest levels of REBNY leadership," said John Banks, REBNY president. "Their insight and experience will support the continued success of our industry, the growth of our economy, and the quality of New York City's commercial, residential, and institutional properties."
