June 04, 2019 - Front Section

Manhattan, NY Organizers of the 2019 NYC Real Estate Expo set for October 24th are advising businesses to act fast to reserve exhibit space at the NY Hilton Midtown.

The day-long 11th annual NYCRE Expo will attract over 5,000 movers and shakers for the industry's premier event, bringing together top commercial and residential real estate pros, plus everyone who deals with them—or wants to—including builders, architects, contractors, telecommunications and maintenance experts, investors, bankers, insurers, utilities and many more.

Event founder and president of the NYC Network Group, Anthony Kazazis, said, “In our first decade we’ve proven this expo is unlike other industry events—a wonderful day of productive networking, panel discussions and promotion. It’s a rare chance to rub elbows and speak with industry leaders whom you probably won’t ever be able to get an appointment with.” The New York Building Congress expects $59.3 billion in construction spending during 2019.
