

H2M architects + engineers names five new shareholders: Bee, Hochhausl, Pisco, Roberts and Rockensies

August 06, 2019 - Long Island

Robert Bee, H2M

Alexander Hochhausl, H2M

Jay Pisco, H2M

James Roberts, H2M

William Rockensies, H2M

Melville, NY H2M architects + engineers has five new shareholders: Robert Bee, R.A., LEED AP; Alexander Hochhausl, P.E.; Jay Pisco, P.E.; James Roberts, P.E.; and William Rockensies, P.E.

Bee is a senior architect and assistant studio director with over 15 years of experience in the field of architecture.

Hochhausl is a practice leader and manager of HVAC and has over 20 years of experience in HVAC and utility generation and distribution systems.

Pisco is a vice president and deputy market leader for the municipal market sector with more than 38 years of experience working on municipal and private projects.

Roberts is a vice president and market leader of water and wastewater with 35 years of experience in engineering and operations and maintenance of water supply, distribution, wastewater collection, and stormwater management.

Rockensies is a vice president and the director of construction services with 30 years of experience in engineering design and construction management.

In the tradition that they have established of inviting valued employees to join them the success of the company, H2M is proud to congratulate these five new shareholders.

H2M, founded in 1933 on the principles of integrity and design excellence, is a multi-disciplined professional consulting and design firm employing over 450 architects, engineers (water/wastewater, civil/site, structural, M/E/P, and environmental), planners, designers, inspectors, surveyors, and scientists.

H2M's headquarters is located at 538 Broadhollow Rd. Other office locations include New York City, Westchester, Suffern, Albany, and Riverhead; as well as Parsippany and Wall Township, N.J.

New York Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540