Erin O'Brien, Certilman Balin

East Meadow, NY Erin O'Brien, a partner in Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman LLP's tax certiorari and condemnation practice group, has been selected as one of Long Island Business News' 2019 "Who's Who: Women in Professional Services." This special edition celebrates Long Island's influential businesswomen.

Prior to joining Certilman Balin, she was a partner at the law firm of Cronin, Cronin, Harris & O'Brien, P.C.

She has litigated before the supreme and appellate courts throughout the state of New York, creating legal precedent with the arena of tax certiorari law.

Admitted to practice in the Eastern District, as well as the States of New York and Connecticut, O'Brien is a member of the New York State Assessors' Association, the New York State Bar Association, and both the Nassau and Suffolk County Bar Associations. In addition, she serves on their tax certiorari and real property committees.

O'Brien is also a founding member of Women in Tax Assessment (WItA), serves on the associate board of the Association for a Better Long Island (ABLI) and has been a guest speaker at various symposiums throughout New York State.

O'Brien earned her Juris Doctor from the City University of New York School of Law where she was a member of Law Review. She earned her Bachelor of Arts from North Carolina State University.
