Manhattan, NY In a transaction arranged by CBRE, Diptyque, a Paris-based goods company that produces a line of scented candles, perfumes, face and body care, and Space NK Apothecary London, a British beauty retailer, signed a retail 2,830 s/f lease at 1165 Broadway for a ten-year term. The commitment by Diptyque and Space NK represents the first retail lease signed at the newly renovated location.

The CBRE team of Amira Yunis, Anthony Stanford and Elliot Ferris represented the building owner, David Haddad.

1165 Broadway - Manhattan, NY

“Located on the northwest corner of 27th St., in the heart of the vibrant NoMad corridor, the property provides both Diptyque and Space NK with exceptional visibility and robust pedestrian traffic seven days a week,” said Yunis. “1165 Broadway also benefits from its proximity to several hotels including The Nomad Hotel and the new Virgin Hotel development, which will be located one block away.”

“NoMad is an area we know well as our Space NK US headquarters sits in this neighborhood. We’ve watched and seen tremendous changes in this part of Manhattan over the years,” said Noah Rosenblatt, president, North America at Space NK. “Within Manhattan, our stores are currently either downtown in SoHo or Uptown. This new store in NoMad will serve as a great central location for all our customers who work and live in the surrounding neighborhoods.”

“Diptyque is proud to be a part of this new project in NoMad. The neighborhood, which has evolved quickly in the last few years, allows us to recruit new customers and be on the forefront of the ever-growing New York retail climate,” said Julien Gommichon, president, North America, at Diptyque. “The boutique is a perfect complement to our existing six stores in New York City and Brooklyn.”
