New York, NY Accounting and consulting firm Raich Ende Malter & Co. LLP (REM) has hired Bonnie Mann Falk, CPA, MBA as new quality control partner. Mann Falk brings nearly 30 years of experience, most recently serving as a director in the Mazars USA LLP quality & risk management team, overseeing and performing engagement quality control reviews, providing technical guidance, developing and delivering training, and performing internal inspections.

Managing partner Ellis Ende said, "With her wealth of knowledge and deep experience, Ms. Mann Falk is uniquely suited to hold this key position in the firm. We are excited to have her here and look forward to working together."

"I am excited to bring my passion for quality and ability to transfer knowledge to contribute to and make an impact on the REM team, clients, prospects, and contacts," said Mann Falk. "I look forward to elevating thought leadership, promoting the quality of REM, facilitating solutions, and building people capacity to face the challenges in our industry."
