

City of Peekskill seeks Downtown Revitalization Initiative project proposals

November 19, 2019 - Front Section

Peekskill, NY Earlier this year, the city was selected by the Mid-Hudson Regional Economic Development Council to receive a $10 million award through the states Downtown Revitalization Initiative (DRI). The Peekskill DRI Local Planning Committee (LPC) has issued an open call for project proposals to seek proposals for privately sponsored projects to be considered for DRI funding. All requirements for submissions can be found at: <https://www.peekskilldri.com/news-1>. Project submissions should be emailed to PeekskillDRI@gmail.com by December 6th, 2019.

The consultant team will hold “office hours” to discuss questions about potential submissions on Wednesday, November 20th from 3 to 5pm at Peekskill City Hall, 840 Main St., in the first floor conference room. In addition, applicants may submit questions on the Open Call via email by November 22nd, 2019 at 4 pm. Please visit www.PeekskillDRI.com for more information
