

Cushman & Wakefield acquires NAI Long Island

December 03, 2019 - Long Island

Carmine Inserra

Melville, NY According to Cushman & Wakefield, it has acquired the brokerage division of NAI Long Island, adding 16 new commercial leasing and investment sales professionals focused on this part of the New York-Tri-State Region.

NAI Long Island was founded in 1980 by Carmine Inserra. Its professionals represent both investors and occupiers in leasing and sales of office, industrial, retail and mixed-use properties.

“With this acquisition, we have doubled the number of brokerage professionals in our Melville office and firmly solidified our leading position in the Long Island market,” said Joseph Caridi, executive managing director and managing principal, Long Island, Brooklyn and Queens at Cushman & Wakefield. “This acquisition was about the opportunity to better serve our clients. Carmine Inserra is a well-known and universally-respected leader in the Long Island business community and we are confident that he and his team will make us even stronger.”

Former NAI Long Island employees will work temporarily in NAI Long Island’s current office until all team members relocate to a new Cushman & Wakefield office in 2020.

“Our team at NAI Long Island is ecstatic to be joining Cushman & Wakefield,” said Carmine Inserra, founder and principal of NAI Long Island. “This acquisition was made possible because of the strong cultural fit of our two companies. By coming together with the Cushman & Wakefield brand and platform we will be able to greatly enhance the service we provide to our clients throughout Long Island and across the globe.”

New York Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540