White Plains, NY According to Callahan Construction Managers, it has officially opened a new office in the state, expanding its presence throughout the northeast.

“This is a very exciting time for our company. Callahan has been growing steadily over the last several years and now we’re ready to take the next step as a company and open a new office in New York,” said Patrick Callahan, president. “Our new location will allow us to serve our regional and national clients outside New England and build on our award-winning tradition.”

Callahan is a full-service construction management company with more than 65 years of experience serving local, regional, and national clients. The company is headquartered in Bridgewater, Mass., and the new office marks Callahan’s second office.

In recent years, Callahan has expanded their services outside of New England, and into the tri-state area with projects such as Danforth Square Apartments in Dobbs Ferry, NY, Residences at Montclair Station in Montclair, NJ, Benchmark at Split Rock in Shelton, CT, Old Middletown High School in Middletown, CT, Maplewood in Darien, CT and Hunters Chase located in Litchfield, CT.

Callahan’s portfolio spans a diverse array of market sectors including multifamily residential, senior and affordable housing, hospitality, life sciences, corporate office, educational, and retail. Many of Callahan’s projects incorporate resiliency, environmental sustainability and achieve LEED and Passive House designation.

The company was voted a “Best Place to Work” by The Boston Globe in 2018. “The cornerstone of our success over the years has been an extremely high percentage of repeat business, which is attributable to our dedication to client satisfaction, our culture, and our many wonderful employees.”, said Patrick Callahan.
