How do you contribute to your community or your profession?

One way I enjoy contributing to my community is by participating in Cycle for Survival, an indoor cycling event operated by Memorial Sloan Kettering. The annual event is a tangible way to raise funds and awareness for rare cancer research, a cause that is particularly meaningful to me. I proudly serve as the team captain and motivator, which over the years has tripled in size. Each year I look forward to doing my part to help beat rare cancers.

If your life were made into a movie, what actor would you want to portray you?

Julia Louis-Dreyfus would play me if my life was made into a movie. I find myself relating to her character on Seinfeld, "Elaine," all the time. I specifically relate to the close familial friendships she has and the comical predicaments she finds herself in all over New York City.
