Manhattan, NY I Heart Mac & Cheese, specializing in customizable, made-to-order macaroni and cheese bowls with a variety of health-conscious bases including quinoa, broccoli, cauliflower, and gluten-free pasta, revealed a two-store franchise development agreement with JP Quickserve Corp. to expand the brand's presence in the state. Two locations will open this year, with the first set to open this spring.

Peter Boudouvas and his wife, Antonietta, will manage and oversee operations for both locations.

"I Heart Mac & Cheese is a fun, attractive concept and an affordable franchise model that is easy to operate with support systems in place to help our partners be successful," said Stephen Giordanella, I Heart Mac & Cheese CEO and chairman. "We are thrilled to continue expanding our popular concept throughout the state of New York into Manhattan."

Boudouvas spent much of his career working on Wall St. and more than 20 years in automotive financing. He was attracted to I Heart Mac & Cheese due to the uniqueness and simplicity of the concept as well as the opportunity to showcase the proven franchise business model in the heart of Times Square.

"I'm thrilled to be opening two I Heart Mac & Cheese locations in New York, alongside my wife," said Peter Boudouvas. "We look forward to bringing a conveniently delicious dining experience to the city that never sleeps and showcasing menu items that are reminiscent of everyone's favorite childhood memories."
