Jericho, NY Engel Burman, a full-service real estate firm, redefined assisted living on Long Island 20 years ago with the creation of The Bristol Assisted Living communities. Continuing their tradition of innovation, they are now offering Long Islanders one of the first luxury senior rental communities, Encore Luxury Living.

According to Scott Burman, principal at Engel Burman and president of EB Construction, "What truly sets Encore Luxury Living apart is our dedication to providing superior services. Encore residents will be able to enjoy gourmet meals prepared by our chefs at one of two on-site dining venues. They will be able to arrange for breakfast and either lunch or dinner in our restaurants on a daily basis."

Encore Luxury Living is designed to combine the ease of apartment living with the luxurious services found at high-end hotels. Encore's luxury one- and two-bedroom suites feature full kitchens with stainless steel appliances, stone countertops, washer and dryer, plus other high-end finishes. Encore Luxury Living features on-site amenities include an outdoor pool and fire pit, bocce court, putting green, cinema, fitness center, salon and spa, yoga studio, and golf simulator.

"Many residents will choose to live at Encore Luxury Living year round, others will split their time between Long Island and their warm weather homes," said Steven Krieger, principal at Engel Burman.

"A luxury rental, Encore Luxury Living offers a host of amenities designed to meet the lifestyle needs of discerning Long Islanders," according to Jan Burman, president at Engel Burman.

Turn-key apartments will be available for snow birds or those undergoing home renovations.

As a part of the monthly rent, Encore's professional staff will provide housekeeping services, maintenance, and plan a calendar of daily social events. Additionally, a concierge is always available to assist residents in securing theater, concert, sporting event, or movie tickets, making reservations at local restaurants accepting packages, arranging for deliveries and providing transportation via Encore Luxury Living's private Mercedes vehicles.
