

Triton Construction launches Triton Interiors

March 24, 2020 - Design / Build

New York, NY Triton Construction has launched Triton Interiors, a new division specializing in diversified interiors construction. Mark Cherchio will lead the new division as they break into the interior construction market while continuing to provide clients with the professionalism and dedication expected from Triton.

Triton Interiors will specialize in outfitting commercial, retail and educational buildings with the full capabilities of Triton's support and services, along with their bonding and insurance resources.

Triton Interiors clients will benefit from the same industry-leading quality management, staffing and efficiency the market has come to expect from the Triton brand. The dedicated interiors staff is well-versed in essential skills, such as process-driven management and schedule oversight, allowing for the delivery of interiors environments in an on schedule and cost-effective manner.

"The launch of Triton Interiors is the next step in the continued growth of Triton Construction," said Frank Reich, co-CEO of Triton. "We are excited to bring our expertise and innovative service delivery to Interiors market."

"Our history of successful project delivery has prepared us for the launch of Triton Interiors," said Lance Franklin, co-CEO of Triton. "This new endeavor is something we are all looking forward to being a part of."

For 18 years, Triton Construction has been the builder of choice for many of New York's most complex, high-end construction projects.
