What aspects of working from home did you enjoy most?

The aspect of working from home that I have enjoyed the most has been the ability to cook and eat my own lunches each day without having to coordinate making lunches in advance, bringing food to the office in tupperware, etc. It also allowed me to eat a greater variety of foods for lunch, avoid spending money buying lunch, and also avoid generating the associated trash produced from buying lunch outside of the office. I have similarly enjoyed the ability to avoid snacking during the workday, (or snack healthily) and sometimes do advance prep work for dinner during my lunch breaks.
