

Hunt Corporate collaborates with SVN for 8,000 s/f lease to Pursuit Emergency Vehicles

May 04, 2021 - Long Island

Ronkonkoma, NY According to Hunt Corporate Services, Inc., Pursuit Emergency Vehicles, LLC, has leased 8,000 s/f of industrial space at 50 Roebling Ct. David Hunt, president of Hunt, exclusively represented the tenant. Stephen Stoehrer, of SVN, represented the landlord, 30-76 30th Street Realty LLC. Pursuit is relocating its Long Island branch location from Hauppauge.

“The proximity to the Long Island MacArthur Airport was a definite draw to this property,” said Hunt. “With multiple locations around the country, easy access to an airport was an attractive plus. In addition, Pursuit required a fenced and secure area for parking, which this property offered. Over 25 different sites were reviewed in the selection process.”

With locations in New York and Virginia, Pursuit partners with organizations such as; local and state governments, vehicle dealers, up-fitter assistance, large apparatus dealers, aftermarket equipment dealers, in house up-fit programs, and commercial fleets, to provide a full range of services to fit their specific vehicle equipment installation needs.

They custom fit emergency vehicles based on need including lights, sirens, radars, computers, cameras, 2-way radios, partitions, command cabinets, GPS tracking devices, and many other specific requirements.

New York Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540