

Fried Frank acts as pro bono counsel to Luria Academy

May 18, 2021 - Front Section

Brooklyn, NY Fried Frank acted as pro bono counsel to Luria Academy in connection with its $10.7 million financing for their planned conversion of a three-story, 34,000 s/f former industrial facility in Prospect Heights to a school for 4th through 8th grade students. The Fried Frank team included real associate partner Meyer Last; real estate associates David Firestone, Hugh MacKay, Heather Paik, Michael Celler and Austin Leist; and asset management associate Katherine Skipper.

The loan proceeds were made available through the purchase by Bank Leumi USA of tax-exempt revenue bonds issued by the Build NYC Resource Corp. Fried Frank also acted as counsel to the school in connection with its leasing of the facility in 2019.

New York Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540