

Rochlin Organization leases 6,425 s/f at 1600 Stewart Ave. to Long Island Vitreoretinal Consultants of New York

August 03, 2021 - Long Island

Westbury, NY According to commercial real estate services firm The Rochlin Organization, Long Island Vitreoretinal Consultants of New York (LIVC) has signed a long-term lease for 6,425 s/f at 1600 Stewart Ave.

Eisenhower Atrium Center is a six-story, 220,000 s/f, class A office building located on Stewart Ave., directly off the Meadowbrook Pwy., (exit M4). The property overlooks Eisenhower Park, has a brand-new café, a brand-new conference center, renovated bathrooms & hallways, ample parking and an emergency back-up generator to service its tenants.

“The completed renovations at 1600 Stewart has resulted in increased leasing activity, and tenants see the difference” said Adam Rochlin when describing ownership’s commitment to the building.

“1600 Stewart Ave. presented the ideal situation for LIVC’s 7th Long Island location being strategically located in central Long Island” said Marc Berkowitz of The Rochlin Organization. “1600 Stewart provides convenient access for patients from Long Island’s north shore and south shore alike.”

Vitreoretinal Consultants joins other notable tenants such as Magnacare, Long Island FQHC, NY Orthopedics, and LI Vision Care.
