What was your greatest professional accomplishment or most notable project, deal, or transaction in 2021?

Community service is very important. The support we were able to provide to the community via our Relief Access Program (rap4bronx.org), and the support we received from our partners during the pandemic, give us the power to continue in the new year. As the new president of the Skyline Charitable Foundation I am looking forward to helping build bridges for communities to access sustainably healthy futures.
