What recent project, transaction or accomplishment are you most proud of?

I am most proud of helping grow Lancewood Capital into the platform that it has become today. Our company started in 2014 as a local New York focused real estate lender and has since become a household name with a national presence in the $1-50 million credit space. We have managed to grow the business year-over-year in an increasingly competitive lending environment while staying true to our focus and underwriting guidelines.

Top three things on your bucket list:

To surf in Hawaii; play golf at Pebble Beach; and to attend Roland Garros (French Open)
