

Moritt Hock & Hamroff's Price named to Secured Finance Network's 2022 Top 40 Under 40 List

July 26, 2022 - Front Section

Garden City, NY Christine Price, counsel in the Garden City office of Moritt Hock & Hamroff LLP, has been chosen as a recipient of the 2022 Secured Finance Network's (SFNet) 40 Under 40 Awards. SFNet was formerly the Commercial Finance Association, the nationwide trade association in the secured lending community.

Price focuses her practice on all aspects of complex commercial lending and real estate matters. She represents numerous lending institutions and borrowers in the closing of all forms of commercial loan transactions including mortgage loans, construction loans, revolving credit facilities and term loans. On the lender side, she provides valuable representation to clients through the entire loan transaction process, including providing guidance on underwriting issues and collateral questions, drafting commitment letters, ensuring completion of due diligence, and drafting and negotiating complex loan documents. On the borrower side, she has helped numerous clients successfully navigate several financial relief programs made available during the COVID-19 pandemic, including the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP), Restaurant Revitalization Fund (RRF), and Shuttered Venues Operators Grant (SVOG), by providing individual guidance and drafting countless articles to keep clients and the industry updated on the constantly evolving programs. She also represents borrowers in acquisition financing and construction loan facilities. Price earned her J.D. from the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University.
