

Resolution Real Estate Partners welcomes Glymph

August 23, 2022 - Design / Build

Jocelyn Glymph

New York, NY According to Resolution Real Estate Partners LLC, a member of NAI Global, Jocelyn Glymph, has joined its construction management division as a project manager. In her new position, Glymph will work directly with Erik Caiola, director of construction, on such projects as the $120 million restoration and repositioning of the McGraw-Hill Building at 330 West 42nd St. and the 42,000 s/f, gut renovation of 150 East 45th St. for HAB Bank.

“Jocelyn represents the next generation of project managers in the city, bringing both on-site experience and educational training to the job,” said Caiola. “She is exceptionally well-organized and already an asset to our team.”

A planning and operations professional, Glymph worked at Edison Properties as a project manager for five years prior to her position at Resolution. Prior, she served as an assistant project manager for three years at JAM Consultants. Glymph holds certifications as a Procore Certified Project Manager in Core Tools, Quality & Safety, and Project Management, and attended Borough of Manhattan Community College.

According to Dana Moskowitz, partner, Resolution, “Our firm is not only expanding exponentially to meet market needs, but we are also adding more women to our team in our property management and leasing divisions, as well as construction management. It all comes down to hiring the best candidates for the job and once again, we have!”
