

Pfeil holds ribbon-cutting for The Conservatory

November 19, 2007 - Upstate New York

A ribbon-cutting ceremony was recently held for The Conservatory, a new 19-unit apartment building in the downtown area.

Jeff and Deane Pfeil of Pfeil & Co. are the developers of the renovation project, which is located at a former department store on 65 Third Ave.

The property stood vacant until the Pfeils acquired it several years ago.

The five-story building will feature 19 one and two-bedroom units, 8,700 s/f of retail space on the ground floor and underground parking for 22 vehicles.

Past tenants of the property include the Troy Conservatory of Music and Stanly Dry Goods.
