

SMPS-NY inaugurates new Executive Committee and Board of Directors for 2022-2023 term

September 13, 2022 - Design / Build

Nathan Reyna

New York, NY The Society for Marketing Professional Services New York Chapter (SMPS-NY), an organization for marketing professionals in the architecture, engineering, and construction (AEC) industry, celebrated the incoming Executive Committee and Board of Directors for the 2022-2023 term. Nathan Reyna, media relations and content specialist at Avison Young, will serve as chapter president and welcomes an enthusiastic group of new and veteran chapter leaders.

Opportunity is top of mind for SMPS-NY this year. “Now is the time for us to reconnect in a meaningful way, especially as we return to a more normal balance of working from home and in the office – people are out again, and the opportunity for us to re-engage with each other is ripe,” said Reyna. “We are a unique group of leaders who are passionate about our members and the work we do. I want us to leverage that enthusiasm as we jump into an exciting year and redefine how we operate, connect, and grow the careers of our members and the value to their firms.”

Reyna brings over 13 years of experience in various communications, marketing, and leadership roles to his position at SMPS-NY. Through a collaborative approach, Reyna will guide the Executive Committee and Board of Directors on a strategic level while empowering chapter members to learn and grow in a professional environment.
