

Hoffman elevated to co-chair of Real Estate Group

December 27, 2022 - Front Section

Jodi Hoffman

East Meadow, NY Jodi Hoffman, partner at Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP, has been elevated to co-chair of the firm's Real Estate Practice Group. Managing partner Howard Stein is her co-chair.

Hoffman's entire career at the firm spans three decades of representing clients in all areas of real estate law. She focuses her practice on the representation of landlords and tenants in commercial leasing on a local and national basis. Additionally, she represents clients in commercial acquisitions and sales for various types of commercial property including retail, warehouse and office buildings. She also handles commercial lending matters, representing borrowers in refinances or in connection with an acquisition.

Noteworthy transactions include her representation of a supermarket chain in its expansion throughout the Tri-State Area, as well as the expansion of its related real estate portfolio. She represented a landlord in the lease of a 230,000 s/f facility for the corporate headquarters of a software company.

Hoffman earned Juris Doctor from Albany Law School of Union University and her Bachelor of Arts in political science from Brandeis University.

Since its inception seventeen years ago, Hoffman has donated her time as a mentor in the Lawyers Involved with Kids Education ("LIKE") program, which is affiliated with the Uniondale School District. In this capacity, she mentors fourth and fifth grade students helping them prepare for the New York State English Language Arts examination as well as providing students with the additional support and attention that they may not receive at home.

Hoffman is a member of the New York State and Nassau County Bar Associations. She is admitted to practice in the state of New York, and the United States District Court, Eastern and Southern District of New York.

New York Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540