The Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY), New York City's leading real estate trade association, announced those who will be honored at the REBNY Annual. On April 20th at the Glasshouse, this event brings together industry leaders and public officials for a night of celebration, networking, awards, and a culinary experience to recognize collective contributions to New York City. Honorees will receive awards during the night's seated dinner alongside the REBNY dais to recognize their commitment to the welfare of New York City, its residents and their contributions to real estate.

"Our 2023 honorees have helped make New York City a bastion of economic opportunity and innovation and are united in their commitment to service and our civic life," said REBNY chairman Douglas Durst. "In recognizing their exemplary leadership, we hope to inspire other New Yorkers to leave their own indelible mark on their industry and community."

"Our honorees exemplify real estate's profoundly positive impact on New York City's growth and success," said REBNY president James Whelan. "Their remarkable passion, vision and ingenuity have elevated our industry and strengthened the foundations of our City."
