

[Webinar] Financing Smart Thermostat Upgrades for Residents

April 25, 2023 - Front Section

Join Logical Buildings to learn how multifamily buildings in New York and New Jersey can utilize their “virtual power plant” project facility to finance smart thermostat upgrade projects that generate significant NOI and carbon emissions reduction with no upfront costs.

When: Tuesday, May 9, 2023 at 11am EST

Where: Zoom!

You will walk through:

1. What is a virtual power plant project
2. Why they are valuable for residents, owners and managers
3. How to utilize our project facility

Please feel free to take a look at the NYREJ article discussing the project facility.
