

2023 Ones to Watch Rising Stars: Chris O'Connor, Reidy Contracting Group

May 16, 2023 - Spotlights

Chris O'Connor
Director of Preconstruction

Reidy Contracting Group

Number of years at firm: 11

One thing on my bucket list: Attend the tuna auction in Tokyo

When I am not working, I am: Exploring the city, whether it is a new restaurant, concert, or park there is so much to take advantage of.

What recent project, transaction or accomplishment are you most proud of? It has been very rewarding working with the National Urban League on the construction of their new headquarters and the Urban Civil Rights Museum. Working with a great team of consultants and helping the project come together the past few months has been a terrific experience and I am very much looking forward to seeing the final product.

What makes this nominee a RISING STAR?

“Since joining RCG 11 years ago, Chris has consistently shown the ability to learn, adapt, and take on more responsibilities. This culminated last year with his promotion to Director of Preconstruction where he actively leads several large projects simultaneously, helps train younger staff, and has become a go to resource for our clients.” - Michelle Dowd , Vice President of Estimating at Reidy Contracting Group
