

2023 Ones to Watch Rising Stars: Ben Bacharach, Belveron Partners

May 16, 2023 - Spotlights

Ben Bacharach
Senior Associate

Belveron Partners

Number of years at firm: 3

One thing on my bucket list: Hike up Machu Picchu.

When I am not working, I am: Traveling, attempting to make ceramic bowls and playing tennis.

What recent project, transaction or accomplishment are you most proud of? Belveron Partners is focused on the creation and preservation of affordable housing throughout the United States. Since joining the Belveron Acquisitions team I have had the opportunity to lead the acquisition of over 5,000 units of mixed income, section 8 and LIHTC units. I am proud to have been able to contribute to a creative investment strategy that not only provides investment returns but also helps provide true long-term housing solutions across the country.

What makes this nominee a RISING STAR?

“Ben has been with Belveron Partners for 3+ years and in that time he has increasingly taken on more responsibility within the firm. He deserves to be recognized as one of real estate’s Rising Stars because of the seriousness and diligence with which he approaches his work and commitment he has shown to the firm’s mission of helping to solve the nation’s affordable housing crisis.” - Josh Platter, Chief Investment Officer at Belveron Partners
